A VISION FOR A CLEAN, LIVABLE, AND EQUITABLE COUNTY

Sharon has a track record of getting things done.

To strengthen Family Advocacy resources in our county, including housing, mental health, supporting women at home and in the workplace

To bring accountability to the people for the dollars being spent on their behalf, to seek the best practices that bring efficiency

To support and respect to those who labor in and for our county. No employee should be disparaged in the work environment or feel threatened to speak up or fear retaliation of any kind

To be a leader who demonstrates respect and is an example of the behavior expected of officials: common public courtesy

Sharon will work to advocate against all age discrimination and age discrimination for housing for seniors and low income residents.
