Program Characteristics:

Executive Summary

The Department of Community Justice (DCJ) Human Resources (HR) unit recruits, hires, trains and assists with the management of regular, on-call, temporary employees, volunteers and interns. DCJ HR and training consultants work closely with both internal and external customers to design responsive programs and services. HR staff work with management and members of three unions to promote effective service. The HR unit directly supports the culture and mission of the Department, giving them the tools they need to do their job and supporting management performance.

Program Summary

The HR unit supports approximately 561 regular employees on any given day in addition to 3 union contracts; and 24-hour operations in Juvenile Detention and the Multnomah County Justice Center. HR will continue to:

- 1) Assess diverse organizational and customer (employee) needs to provide strategic direction as well as succession and workforce planning through active participation on management teams;
- 2) Consult with managers and employees as well as manage employee and labor relations issues, that include performance management, discipline and grievances, recruitment and selection of a highly qualified and diverse workforce, personnel records, leave administration, layoffs and bumping, and compliance with County Personnel Rules, Department Work Rules, and union contracts:
- 3) Ensure compliance with all laws, rules, regulations, policies and labor agreements so liability and costs of unlawful employment actions are reduced or eliminated.

We managed 284 volunteers and interns who provided 8,141 hours of service to DCJ and Multnomah County programs (Volunteer-Intern Coordinator). The HR unit is tasked with developing and implementing HR initiatives with Central Human Resources and Labor Relations, coordinating internal employee investigations, policies and procedures, safety, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), and Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA).
