Executive Summary

In FY 2018, the County hired a human resources consulting firm to perform a detailed review and analysis of County Human Resources policies and practices to identify where County policies and practices may support or further institutional racism and oppression and/or create unjust barriers for employees in protected classes. This scaled program offer includes the anticipated cost for the consultant in FY 2019 and one year of a limited duration management assistant to help implement the recommendations identified.

Program Summary

The County is committed to providing an equitable, supportive, and inclusive work environment that fosters safety, trust, and a feeling of belonging for all its employees. In its Fiscal Year 2017 – 2019 Strategic Plan, Multnomah County Human Resources highlighted "Equitable and Empowering Practices" as one of four goal areas and committed to "end inequities and injustices in the work of human resources through an examination of how our policies, procedures and practices can perpetuate forms of institutional oppression." However, employee data and testimony revealed that employees in protected classes continue to experience racism and other forms of bias, despite these commitments and County policies and practices designed to prevent this.

In FY 2018, the County hired a human resources consulting firm to perform a detailed review and analysis of County Human Resources policies and practices to identify where County policies and practices may support or further institutional racism and oppression and/or create unjust barriers for employees in protected classes. This firm will produce a comprehensive report and detailed recommendations.

This project will be led by the County Chief Operating Officer (COO). The consulting firm will work closely with the COO, the Office of Diversity and Equity, Central and Department Human Resources Offices, County leadership, representatives from County Employee Resource Groups and other county groups.

This scaled offer includes the estimated FY 2019 cost for the human resources consultant contract and one year of a limited duration management assistant to help implement the recommendations identified.
