

What Works

Leveraging health care transformation to improve behavioral health and public safety outcomes

Friday, December 6th, 2013 Portland, Oregon
Oregon Convention Center, Ballroom 201
777 NE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. Portland, OR 97232

AGENDA

8:30 Registration and Coffee

9:00 Welcome

Judy Shiprack – Multnomah County Commissioner, District 3 & LPSCC Co-Chair

Opening Remarks

Amanda Marshall - US Attorney

9:15 Keynote Address

Pete Earley - Mental Health Advocate and Bestselling Author

10:15 15 Minute Break

10:30 Health Care Transformation: An Overview

Tina Edlund – Acting Director, Oregon Health Authority

11:15 Behavioral Health, Public Safety and Health Care Transformation

*Pam Martin, Ph.D., ABPP - Director, Addictions and Mental Health Division
Oregon Health Authority*

Greg Roberts – Superintendent, Oregon State Hospital

12:00 Buffet Lunch

Friesen Award Presentation

12:45 Consumer voice and perspective

Wendy Ball-Engel – Peer Support Specialist

David Fitzgerald - Supervisor, Central City Concern Recovery Mentor Program

Ann Kasper - On-Call Peer Support Specialist, Multnomah County Crisis Assessment and Treatment Center

1:30 15 Minute Break

1:45 Panel Discussion – Moving Forward

Lt. Cliff Bacigalupi –Portland Police Bureau, Behavioral Health Unit

Dr. Satya Chandragiri – Psychiatrist, Chandras Clinic and Oregon State Hospital

Tim Hartnett, MSW, MHA – Executive Director, CODA

Dr. David Labby – Medical Director, Health Share of Oregon

Ginger Martin - Deputy Director, Department of Community Justice

Nan Waller – Presiding Judge, Multnomah County

Representative Jennifer Williamson – Oregon House District 36

3:30 Program concludes

