Portland is rapidly evolving, and PCC must stay ahead of the curve!!

I have worked with all levels and departments within higher ed, from student services to admissions to the executive office. Over the last 18 years, I have been driving higher ed innovation. Education and technology is advancing at an incredible rate. Portland continues to change and evolve at a rapid rate. PCC needs to remain one step ahead in order to serve its students and community.

PCC needs a leader who is immersed in advancements in education and has the background and experience to identify key innovations to drive enrollment and student success.

I bring a depth of background and experience spanning across many different types of colleges across the U.S. PCC is focused on being a leader in building a culture where students, faculty and administrators thrive. I have a proven track record of helping community colleges do exactly that!
