Executive Summary

This program offer is for Central Library, which serves the downtown core of the city of Portland along with visitors from the entirety of Multnomah County. Residents visited Central Library 664,000 times last year and benefited from diverse learning, cultural and recreational opportunities. Central Library also serves patrons throughout the county via email reference services provided by Central Library staff. This program offer includes circulation, stacks, and information services for Central Library as well as the John Wilson Special Collections.

Program Summary

Central Library is a community anchor where patrons attend classes, programs, and forums that provide opportunities for neighbors to interact. County residents have access seven days per week, including some evenings, to nearly 675,000 books and other items from this library. Central Library patrons checked out or renewed over 1,750,000 physical items last year. Central Library empowers new immigrants, small business owners, seniors, students and people experiencing homelessness by providing informational tools to develop life skills.

Patrons develop critical life skills through job training resources, book groups, opportunities for civic engagement, and other library programs. To support critical life skill development and digital literacy, Central Library staff conducted 430 individualized patron appointments, a service with a 98% satisfaction rating.

Central Library provides opportunities for diverse neighbors to interact and engender a sense of community. The library partners with other organizations to improve work and life skills through free public programs. Central Library offers space for library-organized and community-led events to discuss ideas and issues of public interest. Central Library presented 740 programs to 11,000 participants last year. Libraries provide opportunities and resources for lifelong learning by providing free access to computers and high-speed wireless internet. Central Library provides 780,000 internet and wi-fi sessions annually on library and patron devices, including on 162 library-provided public computers. Central Library hosted 140 free computer classes and labs to help attendees develop life and job skills. Children and young people participate in storytimes and Summer Reading at Central Library. Nearly 6,500 people attended youth programs at Central Library last year.

Legal / Contractual Obligation

The budget reflects the passage of Measure 26-143: "Form Library District with permanent rate to fund library services," November 2012 General Election. The district summary states in pertinent part: "If approved, the Multnomah County Library District would be formed with a permanent rate dedicated to library services, operations, books, materials, programs, activities and oversight of the district. Formation of a District would ... prevent reductions in services, programs and activities, and hours."
