Program Summary

Inner/South County Libraries are community facilities where residents attend classes, programs, and community forums that provide opportunities for neighbors to interact. County residents have access seven days per week, including some evenings, to over 418,000 items at these libraries including Chinese and Somali materials. Patrons of Inner/South County Libraries checked out 7,787,776 physical and digital items last year.

Over 114,000 children participated in the 2016 Summer Reading program across the library system, and 81,000 people attended youth programs at Inner/South County Libraries last year. Residents develop critical life skills through job training resources, book groups, opportunities for civic engagement, and other library programs. Inner/South County Libraries' language learning and educational programs improve employment opportunities and quality of life for those residents with low English proficiency and limited resources. To support critical life skill development and digital literacy, Inner/South County Libraries' staff conducted 260 individualized patron appointments, a service that had a 99% satisfaction rating.

Inner/South County Libraries provide opportunities for neighbors to interact through a variety of programs. Inner/South County Libraries volunteers from youth to seniors contributed over 16,000 hours of service last year, and community groups used the meeting rooms 850 times. Libraries serve as a bridge for the diverse cultures within Multnomah County. Residents who are non-English speakers enjoy over 75 bilingual programs and events each year at Inner/South County Libraries. Libraries provide opportunities and resources for lifelong learning by supplying free access to computers and high-speed wireless Internet.
