Executive Summary

This program offer is for the libraries that serve the middle and eastern areas of the county: Fairview, Gregory Heights, Gresham, Holgate, Midland and Rockwood Libraries. Last year residents visited these libraries nearly 1.6 million times and benefited from diverse learning, cultural, and recreational opportunities. These libraries serve the most culturally and ethnically diverse part of the county, as well as the area with the highest concentration of poverty.

Program Summary

Mid/East County Libraries are community facilities where residents attend classes, programs, and community forums that provide opportunities for neighbors to interact. County residents have access seven days per week, including some evenings, to over 463,000 books and other items at these libraries including Spanish, Vietnamese, Chinese and Russian materials. Patrons of Mid/East County Libraries checked out 4,910,562 physical and digital items last year.

Children and young people participate in storytimes, Summer Reading, and after school activities in these libraries. Over 114,000 children participated in the 2016 Summer Reading program across the library system, and 80,000 people attended youth programs at Mid/East Libraries last year. Research indicates that youth participation in summer reading programs results in improved reading skills and enhances all other learning.

Residents develop critical life skills through job training resources, book groups, opportunities for civic engagement and other programs. Mid/East Libraries' language learning and educational programs improve employment opportunities and quality of life for those residents with low English proficiency and limited resources. To support critical life skill development and digital literacy, Mid/East Libraries' staff conducted over 800 individualized patron appointments, a service that had a 99% satisfaction rating.

Mid/East County Libraries provide opportunities for neighbors to interact through a variety of programs. Mid/East County Libraries volunteers from youth to seniors contributed over 21,000 hours of service last year, and community groups used the meeting rooms more than 950 times. Libraries serve as a bridge for the diverse cultures within Multnomah County. Residents who are non-English speakers enjoy over 1,600 bilingual programs and events each year at Mid/East County Libraries. Libraries provide opportunities and resources for lifelong learning by providing free access to computers and high-speed wireless Internet. Mid/East County Libraries provided over 276,000 Internet sessions on 322 library public computing devices last year. Attendees at 673 free computer classes and labs developed life and job skills.
