Executive Summary

The Every Child Initiative (ECI) prepares children for kindergarten by offering education, motivation and support for parents and caregivers to provide language and literacy experiences that foster children's brain development and early literacy skills. This builds the foundation for learning to read. Experts in early learning and literacy, ECI staff deliver engaging programs and hands-on literacy activities that open up the wonder of stories, music, culture and play. Services are directed toward families living in poverty and those learning English.

Program Summary

The Every Child staff, who are trained in child development, brain development and early reading research, visit parents and caregivers in social service agencies, childcare centers, Head Start centers, teen parent programs, treatment facilities, and other locations serving adults with children birth to age five. They teach parents and caregivers easy techniques to prepare their preschool children for learning to read. Classes, taught in English, Spanish, Russian, Chinese and Vietnamese, show adults how to read, talk, sing and rhyme with babies, toddlers and preschoolers so that children develop the pre-reading skills they need before they enter kindergarten.

From birth to age five, children go through a critical window for brain development that supports literacy. Reading, talking, singing, playing, writing and rhyming with children during this sensitive time determines a child's future as a reader. Many parents and caregivers don't know how early this window opens — and closes — and how tremendous an impact simple actions can have on their children's future ability to read. Children must have early experiences with language, books, and writing tools to become successful readers.

Research shows that children most at risk for being unprepared for kindergarten are those who live in poverty, speak English as a second language, have few books in their homes, and whose mothers have limited education and/or low literacy. These children start kindergarten with significantly lower cognitive skills than their more advantaged peers because they likely lacked the opportunity to have rich language and literacy experiences in the five years BEFORE they went to school. The Every Child Initiative reaches these parents on-site and shows them easy ways to help their children gain pre-reading skills during these most important years. Program evaluations show that parents and caregivers gain clear knowledge of their role in their children's preparedness for reading.
