Testimony: Thank you for the N Tualatin Mtn update. I am excited to see Metro include plans for beginner and intermediate friendly mountain biking singletrack trails in the area. I look forward to, in a few years, taking my young son to a beautiful location where he can learn to enjoy the forest on 2 wheels. While Gateway Green is appreciated for mtn bike use within the city, its location is not ideal (interstate on either side). In contrast, the N Tualatins will be a great resource to ride without needing to drive dozens of miles outside the city.
