Statement

Over the past three years, we've made real progress in addressing housing affordability, public safety, and climate action. We've united against hate, and invested in our neighborhoods, small businesses, and quality of life.

The Covid-19 crisis has tested our resolve and stretched the resources of our families, businesses, and communities. I've been inspired by the sacrifice and unity of our residents. I've been saddened by the impact on local businesses. All of us have been touched by social and economic disruption.

We're getting through this crisis by doing what Portland does best: respond to crises with decisive leadership and solutions rooted in our progressive values.

Together, our work on these and other issues will continue. With your vote I'll build upon my record of consistent, innovative leadership dedicated to a healthy, inclusive, and welcoming Portland.

Housing and Homelessness

Together, we more than doubled shelter capacity, helped over 6,000 people off the streets, and built 800 new units of affordable housing. We'll continue tackling this crisis, connecting housing and shelter with addiction treatment, mental health and other services.

Climate Crisis

We're moving Portland to 100% renewable energy, and working with other cities to reduce transportation and building emissions. We're not waiting for Salem or Washington, DC. Let's keep doing our part.

Public Safety

Portland Police Bureau is adopting more capacity, de-escalation training, behavioral health personnel, and improved victim services. Let's continue building trust to keep all Portlanders safe.

Equity and Opportunity

We're helping companies expand youth employment, helping small and minority owned businesses, and focusing transportation policies on neighborhood connectivity. Together we can make Portland a place for all to thrive.
