Optional Information (300 words):

I am proud of my deep Oregon roots and was raised in a family dedicated to public service. I am still called to serve but with Portland facing a pandemic, I have decided to suspend my campaign and focus on COVID-19 response efforts.

I have always believed that people matter more than politics. Now more than ever, we need leaders who will collaborate, do what is in the public interest, and tackle our housing and homeless issues.

There is so much we all need to do to keep our city and its people safe and that's where I will be spending my time: harnessing the creative and entrepreneurial spirit of Portland's small business community to tackle the challenges that COVID-19 brought to health care professionals.

With the spread of COVID-19, we learned to rely on neighbors who believe in Portland. This community spirit must be carried on by our leadership to tackle problems like homelessness, housing, and climate change.

I do want to take this space to tell you about who I am.

I have spent my career leading diverse coalitions to protect our values.

As a grassroots environmental organizer, by bringing all stakeholders to the table, I helped defeat a ballot measure intended to overturn global warming legislation.

As a legislative director in Congress, I am proud of our innovative solutions, including permanently protecting land along the west coast.

As an executive, I brought business and policymakers together to prevent bad online actors from deceiving consumers and businesses.

As a LGBTQ+ community member, I am grateful to Basic Rights Oregon, the Victory Fund, and the individuals and organizations who backed my campaign.

I look forward to working with you and my fellow neighbors in the months and years to come.
