I love Portland!!! I'm a Community Collaborator with a Passion to Serve YOU!! I've been serving faith, business & government leaders for the past 40+ years. My family immigrated from France in 1680's and migrated to south Georgia, where I grew up from 1960-80's and we were very intentional to have friends from different backgrounds. I was the first grandson to attend college and my Dad cut down pine trees to fund my education in Nashville. After learning service in the hotel industry, I moved to southern California, then Colorado Springs & then to northern California, where I met my wife, who grew up in Vancouver, WA. We moved to Portland in 1996 to start our family and live the American Dream, which turned into the American Nightmare, as we filed for bankruptcy in 2009, lost our house and have several children in Heaven. Over the past 10 years, we've been rebuilding our lives with no credit lines, wherein I own a small business and have been serving the city by connecting leaders to work together, build bridges and better our communities for everyone, via our public charity, Serving Our Neighbors. In 2013, we began serving Portland's Sister City Associations and in 2015, I was knighted as a Royal Rosarian, "The Official Ambassadors of the City of Portland." In 2016, we launched the Emergency Preparedness Leadership Forum to bring government, business & faith leaders together to know, like & trust each other, before a disaster. In 2017, we began working with BESThq, a regional business collaborative community, focusing on Relationship, Empowerment & Inclusion and also began collaborating with leaders to use the Wapato Jail as the new Bybee Lakes Hope Center to help the unsheltered transition back into our community.
