John Leamy

City of Troutdale – City Council, Position 6

Occupation: Co-Owner Leamy Printing & Design LLC and Transportation for Corbett School District.

Occupational Background: Director West Columbia Gorge Chamber of Commerce, Real Estate Broker, Home Improvement Sales, Restaurant Owner, Food Service Director.

Educational Background: Corbett High School, Mt. Hood Community College, Multnomah University.

Prior Government Experience: Troutdale Town Center Committee, Troutdale Historic Landmarks Commission.

Other Community Involvement: 2019 Troutdale Citizen of the Year, Kiwanis of the Columbia Gorge, Pathway Church, Troutdale Cruise In, Troutdale Summerfest, Corbett 4th of July FunFest.

Information: With Troutdale being the beautiful & vibrant community it is, in 1987, my wife Donna and I moved from Corbett where I grew up to Troutdale and bought our home where we were able to raise our son and daughter to adulthood.

As a small business owner in Troutdale for the past 18 years, I would like to address the needs of the business community. A vital business community enhances our whole community.

I would like to make sure Troutdale's portion of the metro homeless tax goes toward services for the homeless in our area.

Four projects I would like to help come to fruition; 1) development of the Confluence at Troutdale (formerly URA), 2) a new City Hall, 3) Main Streets type program (which would help make Troutdale a destination) and 4) give equal attention to all of Troutdale, not just the downtown area.

I would like every citizen of Troutdale to never have to question whether I am representing them.

Bringing community back to our community.
