For the last 19 years, I have lived in the beautiful city of Wood Village. I graduated from Reynolds High School, started my family here, and have dedicated most of my personal and professional time serving and supporting my community.

I'm running for a seat on the city council to ensure that Wood Village is a strong community where we all can thrive.

As your councilor I will fight to:

- Engage new voices
- Achieve equity in city services and ensure everyone is respected
- Expand parks and recreation services

We have an incredible opportunity as residents to help guide our city's growth. As you councilor, I will listen and serve you.

I have great confidence and faith in our city that, in the years to come, we will get stronger by working together and ensuring our city is welcoming to everyone.

"Jairo leads with heart, compassion, and kindness. He is committed to ensure everyone in Wood Village is represented."
