Occupation: Education Specialist, Oregon Department of Education

Occupational Background: Community Engagement
Officer, Northwest Health Foundation; Director of Multicultural Programs, Linfield College; Admissions
Counselor, Washington State University Vancouver

Prior Governmental Experience: Oregon Health Authority: Healthcare Workforce Committee

As a working parent and lifelong educational advocate, I would be honored to serve as your next Reynolds School Board member. I bring over 17 years of experience in educational settings and philanthropy working closely with community to lead policy change. Now at the Oregon Department of Education, I lead the Latino/a/x Student Success Plan to support community-led efforts closing the educational opportunity gap across the state.

As your next School Board member, I'm committed to:

- Community Engagement Our families bring a wealth of life and cultural experiences and every Reynolds school will benefit from listening to and working alongside our families when making key decisions.
- Reflective staff We must work to measure to ensure our staff and teachers reflect our student population. Teachers who share the same cultural background and life experiences as our students can connect students and families in positive and impactful ways.

 Academic excellence - I want to help build a district where every student receives the best education.
 This means investing in programs that honor the cultural and linguistic strengths of our students and help them achieve new heights.

I will work tirelessly to help ensure every Reynolds student receives the best education we can provide them and hope to earn your support.
