A Post COVID Lake Oswego – The Key is Wel

Investment & Infrastructure

"Let's focus on providing an environment inviting to businesses and families. A thriving post COVID economy will need creativity and engagement." Aaron Rapf

- Council must have a sustainable, long term approach to budgets and spending.
- Prioritize providing exceptional infrastructure. Efficiently deliver essential services.
- Parks, safe pathways to schools, bikeways, trails, well turfed fields, pools, the arts must be budget priorities.

"Aaron's masterful grasp of numbers, his experience managing multi-million-dollar budgets will be a huge asset." Mayor Studebaker

Safety & Security

"Police, fire and paramedics are essential parts of a top-notch city. Community safety, security, well-being, fairness and equity are my priorities." Aaron Rapf.

- We must give our first responders the resources and training to properly support everyone in our community.
- Safe neighborhoods and safe schools are a must.
- Trust, transparency and local partnerships will result in true community policing.

"Aaron's focused, strategic approach is exactly what we need in these challenging times." Chris Rigney, LOSD Budget Committee

Collaboration & Cooperation

"We must create a framework to support a culture of belonging and lead by example." Aaron Rapf

- Encourage dialogue, engagement and understanding of other's experiences.
- As a community, we must welcome diversity.
- Council should work collaboratively with LOSD to promote the strength of neighborhood schools.

"Aaron is all about 'we.' Let's elect inclusive leaders. Let's elect Aaron Rapf." Ashley Miller, Small Business Owner.
