Ann Sanderson: The Change We Need

We need bold, innovative ideas and leaders who can carry them out. I led the fight against the Street Fee on behalf of small businesses and low income residents and won. Now I want to be the voice of the people of Portland on the issues that matter most. These are some of my priorities if elected:

Housing Will Take Years, The Crisis Is Now

Right now Portland needs 40,000 affordable housing units. In the time that it will take to get there, more Portlanders will become homeless. Every person on the streets is deserving of our compassion and help, and laws must be enforced for everyone's safety. City sanctioned camps are not the answer. With new leadership, safer, cleaner solutions like micro housing can be found.

Facing The Economic Challenges of the Future

Old fashioned approaches won't work in the new economy. Companies like Uber and AirBnB create new sources of income; we need leaders who can understand the changing economic landscape. As a business owner, I have the right experience and perspective to craft regulations that encourage new enterprise and help old industries adapt and become more vibrant.

Improving Management and Transparency

Whether in charge of parks, police, transportation, or 911, every city council member must also be a good manager. Inefficient policies, ineffective leadership, and mismanaged budgets are holding Portland back. Having run a successful small business, I can manage the bureaus efficiently and within budget while focusing on the priorities that will make Portland work for everyone.

It's time to change City Hall. With your vote, ANN CAN.
