Is a global recession and pandemic the right time for our library go on a land buying spree?

Is now the best time for the library to go on an expensive luxury remodeling project while thousands of area restaurants, shops and small businesses are at risk of closing forever?

Couldn't the library come up with any number smaller than a staggering $387 million?

Is what the libraries are asking for worth kicking people out of their homes because they can't afford higher property taxes from this tax?

Please libraries, stop your untimely land buying spree.

Please wait until after the damage is done to start your luxury remodeling.

Please, please, please drop your pricey wish-list and come back next year with a request that taxpayers can afford
