Defending Our Schools, Defending Our Future

I'm Karin Stark, a former (and future) educator, and parent of four students in Beaverton District schools. I believe public schools belong to all of us. With more than 38,000 students and 97 languages spoken in our district, I understand that no single perspective captures the diversity of our community.

I will elevate the voices of those most impacted by district decisions—ensuring that families and communities are informed and heard. Our future depends on it. I will insist the district bring all stakeholders to the table to ensure that the values and voices of our community are represented.

We are at a critical crossroads. We need leaders who will:

- Promote effective and research-based safety measures
- Champion the educators unions so as to prevent the need for strikes
- Prioritize small class sizes & teacher retention
- Center voices of students, families, and educators who are most impacted.
- Stand up against pressure to close schools and roll back DEI+B programs.
- Increase transparency, accountability, and shared decision-making.
- Partner with local cultural groups on how to meet the needs of students from marginalized communities.
