Committed Parent - Collaborative Leader - Education Advocate

I am a father of two, a husband and I have raised my family here in Oregon for 19 years. As a parent of one graduate and one current student in the district, I understand that our schools are a place where all kids should feel safe and have an opportunity to succeed.

I have served families experiencing houselessness, poverty, substance abuse, interpersonal violence, mental health needs and other systemic barriers for over two decades.

I understand how a great school can make a child feel safe and supported; allowing every child to excel and families to thrive. I'll bring my experience serving families to fight for great schools, because every child deserves a great education.

Proven Experience Serving Families
Responsible Management of Public Resources

My Priorities:

Responsible governance to meet the current needs of our district, prepare for the future, and ensure we use our fiscal resources effectively.

Collaboration with community, organizations, and other institutions to maximize our students' learning and well-being.

Measuring what matters, so we can all be accountable for our young people.
