Candidate Statement:

In my three decades of experience in Lake Oswego, I have been a small business owner, a parent, a community leader and current member of the Lake Oswego School Board . My priority is to ensure a thriving educational community that gives all children the opportunity to succeed. On May 19th, I ask for your support to make Lake Oswego a better place to live, work and raise a family.

Community Involvement:

*President, Waluga PTO

*Initiated & Led Parent Drug & Alcohol Program

*Lakeridge Auction, Co-Chair

*Chamber of Commerce Leadership Lake Oswego Program Participant

“ Having lived in Lake Oswego for 30 Years, Bob Barman is a proven listener who acts on behalf of our schools and our children. A successful small business owner, Bob has always been a passionate advocate for our schools and will fight to maintain our community’s reputation for excellence.”

Richard Devlin- State Senator

“ Bob Barman understands what it takes to give our children a leg-up in this economy. He fought to expand access to Advanced Placement Courses, added ACT prep classes which help students compete for college, established our district’s Spanish Immersion Program and is a strong supporter of legislative efforts to reinvest in our schools.”

Ann Lininger – Parent, State Representative

“Bob is an incredibly talented, diligent leader. While serving with him, I saw how his inclusive, effective leadership led to numerous positive changes for all our students.”

Teri Oelrich – Former Lake Oswego School Board Member

“ Bob Barman believes that to stay ahead, we need to find new ways to innovate in the classroom. He’s traveled on his own dime to California, Texas, and Minnesota to learn the latest in educational trends, explore best practices and bring good ideas home to Lake Oswego.”

Keith Dickerson – Leadership Lake Oswego Executive Director
