Motto: Lead by example

Fairview needs a breath of fresh air, the troubles in Fairview have not gone unnoticed throughout the community and this election is the chance to change directions. Fairview needs strong leadership and someone willing to roll up their sleeves and be more than a body on the council.

For the last 2 years I have rolled up my sleeves, I've founded Friends of Fairview volunteer group, assumed control of Fairview's only community festival: Fairview on the Green. I have hosted Litter, graffiti cleanups, Solve Events, COPP member, Neighborhood meetings and charity events.

I want to bring Passion and community involvement back to city governing.

Economic development: Whether you are a city, a business or a volunteer group. Growing is essential. Whether it is through a package of business incentives that makes Fairview look attractive, a large promotion and marketing program to even as unique a community Festival that highlights our many businesses, I can do that

Public Safety: Sidewalk infrastructure is crumbling. Council chooses to pay off low interest water bond instead of investing in the community. City needs to be proactive, complete unfinished sidewalks and repair the damaged sidewalks before people get hurt. It's not just a matter of safety it's a matter of pride and property values.

Livability: Together we are far better stewards of the community than we are apart. The council needs to do a better job bringing people together. If we all do our small part, we can have big successes. Our parks, our festivals, our community events all add to our great livability in Fairview

Fiscal Responsibility. I balanced the budget in 2012
