Invested in Our Schools and Community

- Carla has been an active volunteer for organizations that help at-risk families and youth.
- As Chief of Police, Carla put our kids first by working with school district leadership to fund School Safety Officers in our schools, and secured 4 years of grant funding for a "Summer Boost" program for elementary school students.
- As the Chair of the Multnomah County Commission on Children, Families and Community, Carla fought to secure funding for the SUN School Program in East County schools.

A Proven Advocate

- For more than 30 years Carla was a citizen advocate for after school programs, supplemental educational programs, and Head Start funding, because she knows that these programs are essential to keeping our workforce ahead of the curve.
- As a member of the Oregon Legislature and House Education Committee (2015-16), Carla has consistently fought for smart investments in our kids and our community. She helped fund the Open School, Rockwood Boys & Girls Club, and the Mount Hood Community College Technology Innovation Center. Carla is committed to hiring more teachers to reduce class sizes, restoring funding for programs like art, music, and PE, and expanding career and technical education.
