"I've worked with Carmen for years on issues ranging from criminal justice to education and immigrant rights. Carmen is the hardworking, collaborative leader our city needs."

-Senator Ron Wyden

Safe, Stable Housing for All. Leaders at every level of government must work together on the number one challenge: our housing shortage and homelessness crisis.

- We should deploy our bond dollars to build more affordable housing now.
- We need reasonable eviction protections and more rent assistance to prevent homelessness in the first place.
- We need supportive housing with mental health, addiction treatment, and other services for the chronically homeless.

Climate Action Now. Portlanders want more to be done to fight climate change and our investments must reflect that. Our dollars must fund sustainable practices, create demand for renewable energy, and preserve and grow parks and other green spaces.

Invest in Every Corner of Portland. Investments in our workforce, roads, sidewalks, and buses can't just be about downtown. I will always fight for the parts of our city that have been underserved, like east of 82nd and outer NE Portland.

A More Representative Government. I will work to change Portland's form of government so when you look at City Council, you see your neighborhood and your community reflected back at you.
