"Activist, writer, and teacher from Portland Susan Anglada Bartley's thoughts on Cash Carter"

Policing

Mr. Carter did not express an anti-police stance. He did not express any statements related to police abolition. I got the feeling that he values the role that police play.

The Arts

Mr. Carter expressed a passion for music and the arts. He mentioned wanting to promote more public concerts and music events. The way he answered made me think that he would like to be a leader who works toward greater civic engagement in a way that Portlanders would really enjoy.

How I felt in the presence of this candidate

Cash Carter seems really cool. I got the feeling that he is a highly motivated person who does not want to be underestimated. I got a sense that he is proud of his working class roots. I also got the sense that he loves the Portland Trailblazers from the emblem on his hat. He seems like a guy who could get along with anyone, which is important for a mayor. He is open minded and on-the-spot creative. Jan 22nd 2020
