I am a 31-year-old husband, father of four, ages 26,13,3 and 3 months in a blended family, and a proud grandfather to a one-year-old granddaughter. I come from a legacy of Army veterans, community activists, educators, and school leaders. My core values include human rights, social equity, economic optimism, and environmental justice.

My initiatives, which have evolved since my mayoral race, focus on Family-Based Public Health, Community-Based Public Safety, and Socio-Ecological Infrastructure. As a youth advocate, I have received training in suicide prevention and social-emotional learning, and dedicated time working with students from 2nd to 12th grade. I believe our students deserve a leader who understands their struggles at home, in school, and beyond, and who will lead with empathy and an equity lens.

I have also proposed the Moorish American Youth Upliftment Program to the Oregon Legislative Assembly in support of SB 209, Youth Employment Program, and launched the Youth-Led Social Impact Fund pilot through FundExecs Venture Club.
