I'm running for Metro Council because of my successful track record as a community activist fighting for housing affordability and tackling the imminent threat of climate change. I'll guide Metro to ensure the dollars entrusted to us by the voters for housing and related services are spent effectively and efficiently.

We can address the 40% of greenhouse gas emissions from transportation in our region. We'll deploy significantly more and more frequent transit service, build missing sidewalks, create safe bikeways, make telecommuting a realistic option for many and reduce reliance on drive-alone auto trips.

Decades of Climate, Housing and Transportation leadership

- Fought off a propane terminal on the Columbia
- Preserved 800 acres of habitat on West Hayden Island
- Leading opposition to $800 million Rose Quarter freeway expansion
- Rewrote Portland's land use, transportation and housing policies
- Extended Streetcar across the Willamette
- Championed campaign finance reform
- Leading "Vision Zero" transportation safety

"The Metro Council is a unique agency, the only one of its kind in the nation, and Chris is uniquely qualified as a leader on the planning and environmental issues that are at the heart of its mission. Voters have this one chance to elect a transportation expert who is rooted in the community."

Former Metro President David Bragdon

"As youth climate justice leaders, we endorse Chris for Metro because of his relentless successful advocacy to stop fossil infrastructure, decarbonize our region's transportation system & center climate justice values."
