Today is a National Day of Racial Healing

The National Day of Racial Healing in 2026 is on Tuesday, January 20, following Martin Luther King Jr. Day, marking its 10th anniversary, with events focusing on storytelling, dialogue, and action to address racism and build equity.

Organizations and local municipalities are hosting virtual and in-person gatherings for reflection, deep listening, and community building.

Engage in activities like exploring diverse books, learning local history, and discussing equity with your support networks, in honor of today.
