I am a born and raised Corbett resident. My son is 3 years old and a future student of the Corbett School District. This drives me to ensure that his future is in good hands.

I will devote my time and energy to the success of Corbett students. I am dedicated to preserving and improving the quality of the Corbett School System.

I have a clear vision for directing our school district:

- We will focus on student achievements;
- We will build positive relationships throughout the district; and
- We will connect with the community.

Public education is one of the most crucial tools we have to help our youth succeed.

My name is Paul Granberg, and with your vote, I will stand for our children's most important needs.
