What Does the IT/Health Department Portfolio Do?
We are a team of senior business systems analysts who deliver the greatest possible value to our Health Department customers. We improve their experience of technology and deliver solutions that make it easier for them to do the very important work of serving our community.

Internship Description & Responsibilities:

- Develop tools using Gemini to increase productivity and increase ease for the Senior Business Systems Analysts (who also work as project managers for smaller projects and as a product owner for various custom developed and vendor applications).
 - Analyze current state and desired future state

- Interview team members
- Analyze business requirements and dependencies
- Research possibilities
- Create iterative solutions by creating prototypes and gaining feedback
- Collaborate with the IT Senior Business Systems Analyst (BSA) to explore and gain insight into the evolving areas of data analysis and Artificial Intelligence (AI), specifically focusing on tools like Snowflake and Power BI. This role involves assisting in determining the actual needs of internal customers and identifying how these advancements in AI can effectively support them in achieving their objectives.

Learning Outcomes:

- Enhance understanding of how Generative AI/Gemini can assist/enhance users ability to meet the challenges of their work
- Application of AI in healthcare data analysis
- Project management and business analyst fundamentals
- Change management
- Government IT standards and practices

Education and Minimum Qualifications:

- Candidates should have completed or enrolled in a college/university academic institution
- Familiarity with GenAI prompts
- Familiarity with Google solutions is helpful
- No previous IT or AI experience required
- Bring your curiosity and a desire to learn healthcare IT and AI
- Promote a culture of respect, inclusiveness, and appreciation of diverse perspectives, backgrounds, and values (Link to Equity and Empowerment Lens)
