

Apply for Multnomah County's Community Involvement Committee

- ★ Do you care about community involvement in County decision-making?
- ★ Do you want to help reduce barriers to community voice in County programs and policies?
- ★ Do you enjoy working with a diverse group to identify common goals that benefit the community?

If so, apply to join the County's Community Involvement Committee.

The Community Involvement Committee serves as Multnomah County's advisory body on community engagement and involvement. We are currently recruiting for new Community Involvement Committee members. A $35 stipend per meeting is available to support your participation.

This year, we are especially recruiting members in District 1 - find your district here:
