

Exhibit A - Timeline

Timeline of Proposed Reed Residence at 12424 NW Springville Road, Portland (T2-2021-14981)

- August 17, 2021 Reed emails revised General Application form to Multnomah County LUP Submittals
- August 18, 2021 Multnomah County LUP emails invoice for $4,582.00
- August 18, 2021 Reed pays the $4,582.00 invoice through the link provided by Multnomah County LUP
- August 18, 2021 Multnomah County LUP emails confirmation of paid invoice
- September 8, 2021 Multnomah County LUP emails “incomplete” letter
- September 17, 2021 30-day completeness review deadline. A completeness letter from Multnomah County LUP was emailed to Reed.
- September 18, 2021 Reed emails “Applicant’s Response” to Multnomah County LUP
- September 22, 2021 Multnomah County LUP confirms receipt of “Applicant’s Response” via email
- February 14, 2022 Reed emails Multnomah County LUP the additional information and comments identified in “incomplete” letter
- February 14, 2022 180-day deadline for Reed to submit additional information requested in “incomplete” letter
- February 16, 2022 Multnomah County LUP’s Chris Liu confirms receipt of additional information and emailed that “I will send you a completeness letter as soon as I am able to.”
- March 11, 2022 Reed emails Chris Liu and asked a question and made a statement.
“Have you finished the 30 day completeness review of the application?”
“I thought we had to have the application deemed complete before the 150 day clock started.”
- March 16, 2022 30-day completeness review deadline. No completeness letter from Multnomah County LUP.
- March 17, 2022 Chris Liu emails Reed with update.
“February 14, 2022 was the deadline for responding to the incomplete items. That date has passed. I am reviewing the information you have provided.”