I will continue to prioritize the needs of my community while building a city that is safe, healthy, and welcoming for all

I have proudly called Fairview home for 15 years and raised three children who attended and graduated from our local schools. I am dedicated to improving our community and protecting the qualities that make Fairview unique: welcoming neighbors, parks and natural spaces, a small-town feel, and a diverse community where everyone belongs.

I am running for City Council because I care deeply about Fairview's future. My priorities include addressing budget challenges, supporting public safety in a fiscally responsible and sustainable way, helping struggling families, and working with our community partners to address homelessness, addiction, and crime. I am committed to thoughtful leadership that preserves what makes Fairview special while building a stronger future for all residents.

Public Safety: ensure sustainable funding for essential public safety services (fire, police, ambulance, 9-1-1 communications)

Sustainable City Budget: work with city staff to address budget shortfalls and additional income opportunities to ensure valuable services in Fairview remain strong.

the community to keep them informed and engage them in their community

Multigenerational and multicultural community: Ensure services and communication are equitable, inclusive, and accessible to all

As your City Councilor, I am committed to thoughtful leadership that keeps Fairview safe, financially strong, and connected. I will continue to advocate for public services that meet the needs of as many residents and businesses as possible.
