CIC Community Agreements FY26

- Acknowledge intent, address impact - Call each other in
- Listen to understand; pause; think intentionally about what you want to say before sharing
- Speak from your own experience and prioritize using “I” statements
- Consider earned/unearned privileges that inform lived experiences
- Be willing to make mistakes and be accountable for missteps
- Move up, move back - elevate your participation, elevate your reflection
- Work within the energy, availability, and abilities that you have to support each other in additional CIC tasks, as needed.
- Welcome and honor differences in experience, identity, perspectives, participation levels and styles
- Celebrate accomplishments
- Discuss ideas not people: dialogue not debate

Meeting Expectations

- Come to meetings prepared to participate
 - Consider and reflect upon the team agreements before meetings
 - Work to be fully present during meetings
 - Incorporate time into meetings for reflection and additional comments
 - Please let the Committee know if you will not be able to attend CIC meetings (it is assumed that Committee members will attend meetings unless they say otherwise).
 - Allow time between speakers and topics, to allow everyone to process and participate. It is never too late to share a thought!
 - Respect time allotted - embrace flexibility with the agenda!
 - Take breaks and prioritize what you need to be fully present.
