

FY 2027 CBAC Bios

Terrance Moses, District 2

Terrance is a husband, father and community activist. He is a veteran of the our armed forces (USN & US Army), Terrance's caring , compassion, and pragmatism most recently has focused on building bridges between the Housed and Un-Housed in North and Noth-east Portland. He has served as the on call volunteer for Kenton women's village since 2017. Some of his other work includes; Chair of the Kenton Neighborhood association (KNA), member of the PPB Crisis Responders Team (CRT), DCJ BAC team. His giving spirit and calm demeanor has helped him be able to de-escalate tense situations. He is notably known as the Mayor of Kenton.

Kenneth Connin, District 1

Kenneth Connin is a Political Science graduate student with a passion for people, problem-solving, and making a difference. Known for his curiosity, optimism, and drive to uplift others, Kenneth is dedicated to both academic growth and community service. He volunteers with the Red Cross and enjoys connecting with people from all walks of life. A natural helper and leader, Kenneth values compassion, resilience, and service as guiding principles in everything he does.

Rob Farris, District 3

Rob works in the public defense space and has a passion for justice and equity. He has an extensive history of community volunteerism and public service featuring: teaching in the Peace Corps, mentoring in the Big Brothers Big Sisters program, and creating a Dungeons & Dragons program at Donald E. Long Juvenile Detention where he facilitates and plays with youth promoting prosocial behaviors and building community. His background includes a Bachelor's Degree in Astrophysics, a Masters in Business Administration, and many years of working alongside executives in the corporate sector. Rob was born in Roseburg and lives in NE Portland with his wonderful fiancée and their dog.

MyKel Johnson, District 1

MyKel is an enrolled member of the Nez Perce Tribe with Yakama and Umatilla descendency. She is a dedicated advocate for tribal sovereignty, economic justice, and self-determination. Her work with the Northwest Native Chamber and tribal communities across Oregon focuses on advancing equity, strengthening systems, and supporting community-led solutions. With experience in policy, business development, and family services, MyKel brings a culturally grounded and solutions-focused approach to justice and community well-being. She is deeply committed to uplifting youth and families and driving lasting change that empowers communities to thrive.