Gresham-Barlow School Board, Position 6

Heather Coleman-Cox

Occupation: Retiree, Media Relations Director for Juneteenth Oregon, Secretary for the Board of Directors PDX Jazz, Vacation Bible School Teacher for Emmanuel Church

Occupational Background: Network and Cloud Engineer at Intel for 12 years

Educational Background: M.S. Management Information Systems University of Maryland University College

Governmental Experience: Gresham Community Enhancement Committee

As a parent of elementary-aged kids in Gresham-Barlow, I'm passionate about ensuring all students access quality, inclusive education. My experiences as a student, parent, and grandparent highlight both the progress we've made and the areas that need improvement, particularly in ensuring families have a voice in school board decisions.

I facilitate and administer robotics training for the Miss Juneteenth Oregon Program, collaborating with industries such as banking, healthcare, and technology to provide free training for young girls. On the school board, I would advocate for more partnerships that connect students with real-world skills and find innovative solutions to support their success despite budget constraints.

I'm a wife, a mother of Hogan Cedars Elementary students, and a retiree who is dedicated to listening to community concerns and partnering with families to find solutions. I genuinely believe that education is not cookie-cutter, and my goals include promoting not only STEAM but also skilled trades education. I value service, and I'm a strong advocate for public schools and recognize their vital role in our communities. I plan to bring a fresh perspective to the school board, focusing on community engagement, tech-savvy solutions, and amplifying the voices of families who haven't been heard.

My goals also include improving after-school programs, promoting inclusive curricula, and ensuring fairness for every student, regardless of their background or learning style. Together, we can create a school system where every child is prepared, supported, and ready to thrive.

Endorsements:

Heidi Blakley, Principal Hogan Cedars Elementary School

La'Shawanta Spears, Assistant Superintendent of DEI, David Douglas School District

Vince Jones-Dixon, Multnomah County Commissioner

Eddy Morales, Gresham City Councilor
