

A photograph of a large, light-colored stone sign for the Gresham Civic Center. The sign is composed of two horizontal sections. The top section reads "GRESHAM CIVIC CENTER" in large, dark, sans-serif capital letters. The bottom section is divided into three parts, each with a bench in front of it. The left part reads "POLICE" and "FIRE" in dark capital letters. The middle part reads "VISUAL ARTS GALLERY" in dark capital letters. The right part reads "CITY HALL" and "SCHOOLS" in dark capital letters. The sign is set against a background of green trees and a modern building with a grid-like facade. In the foreground, there are green lawns and some pink flowering bushes on the right.

A man with a beard, wearing a blue vest over a checkered shirt and blue pants, is standing at a podium and speaking. He has his hands outstretched. In the background, several people are seated in an audience, and two men in dark jackets are standing. The setting appears to be a conference room or a meeting hall.
