As a working Mom & Grandmother, I understand working full-time, juggling the demands of family life and home. We deserve a city that works as hard as we do to make our neighborhoods safe and help create opportunity for all our residents.

As a community leader and former Gresham City Councilor, I've served Gresham for 30 years and I'm ready to get to work on Day One.

If elected, I will fight to make Gresham a safe, strong, and welcoming place for all our neighbors:

Public Safety: Gresham needs permanent solutions that properly fund and staff our Fire and Police departments. Every Second Counts in an emergency, I will fight for robust emergency services.

Resilient City: Climate change has brought extreme weather – heat domes and record snowstorms aren't normal. It's the city's responsibility to make sure Gresham is prepared for extreme conditions by improving existing housing, updating policy/code, and providing services that help our residents weather the storm.

Build Family Housing: We need to develop housing for families of all kinds. I support multi-generational affordable housing and will work with our educators, nonprofits, law enforcement, and community groups to create welcoming safe neighborhoods with more trees, more green spaces, and more opportunity.
