Occupation: Vice President of Business Banking at Bank of the West Gresham

Occupational Background: US bank, and Key Bank Gresham Branch Manager.

Educational Background: B.S. Communications from Portland State and graduated from Sam Barlow High School.

Prior Governmental Experience: Planning and Development Commission Chair- City of Gresham, Rockwood and Gresham - Redevelopment Advisory Committee, Gresham Redevelopment Commission Budget Committee Chair.

Volunteer/Community Experience: Birch Community Services, Boys and Girls Club, Special Olympics, Treasurer of Rockwood Business Coalition, Oregon Food Bank, Smart Reading Program, Junior Achievement and Financial Beginnings

Now is a time for change! As an active Chair of the Planning Commission I bring my enthusiasm and proven ability to be extremely reliable in my serving duties.

My beginnings in Gresham started with attending Gordon Russell. Now my kids will get to go to Hogan Cedars. My wife is a Pre-School Center Director in a neighboring community. Our passion is KIDS! As a foster parent we have learned that there is a crisis with our children right now. We need as a community to talk about this. We will work on solving this and taking care of our kids in the community.

I am engaged in the community and have spent the last 10 years advocating business development that will lead to increased jobs and community services. I partner with our businesses and neighborhood associations and citizens. We all want a city and communities that are vibrant, healthy with a high quality of living for our children in the community.
