Formatted Statement

Personal Statement:

Gresham is dear to my heart. I am proud to call this wonderful city home and remain committed to serving experienced, honest neighbor who delivers steady, common-sense leadership for families.

My Vision for Gresham

Public Safety First

I fought for the local option levy that fully funded 40 police positions and added 33 fire positions, preventing the loss of 18. Our community can sleep easier knowing Gresham-owned services will be there when it matters most. I support restoring specialty teams and continuing strong community engagement.

Homelessness with Compassion and Accountability

I support strengthening our 7-day housing-focused outreach team that moves people into housing while enforcing codes so our streets and sidewalks stay clean and safe.

Economic Vitality & Thoughtful Growth

I will continue as a strong voice for job creators and small businesses. We must grow in a way that protects Gresham's Tree City identity, activates underutilized areas such as the former Kmart lot, and celebrates improvements at Gradin Sports Park.

With a new City Manager and the possibility of several new council members, Gresham needs the continuity of experienced leadership that finishes what we start and keeps the trust.

We Strongly Support Janine Gladfelter for City Council:

Shane Bemis, past Mayor of Gresham

Karylinn Echols, past Mayor of Gresham

Greg Matthew's, Former State Representative HD 50

Ricki Ruiz

Diane Mckeel, Former Multnomah County Commissioner

David Widmark, Former Gresham City Councilor

Cathy Keathley, Gresham City Council President

Kayla Brown, Gresham City Council

Jerry Hinton, Gresham City Council

Sue O'Halloran (business owner)

Dan Corcoran (business owner)
