Help Us Improve Portland-Area Ryan White Services!

Your voice matters! There are several ways to get involved in this program as a community member and person living with HIV.

Client Advisory Councils/Boards:

- Many Ryan White medical and social services providers have client groups where they can share input on services. Please reach out to each specific provider about this.
- HIV Services Planning Council: This volunteer group of people living with HIV, service providers, and community advocates makes decisions about overall Portland-area Ryan White service priorities and funding. To learn more, go to hivportland.org
- Grievances: Have an issue with a staff member or service? You can file a formal complaint called a grievance. Each Ryan White provider has their own process to follow.
