Jack Kerfoot

Occupation: Energy expert on national radio and TV

Occupational Background: Veteran, Scientist, Executive, Author

Educational Background: Oklahoma University, Educational Study – Major/Minor: Geophysics, Diploma/Degree/Certificate: BSc.; Penn State, Educational Study – Major/Minor: Executive Program

Prior Governmental Experience: None

EXPERIENCE – I began by working minimum wage jobs, served with the 101st Airborne Division in Vietnam, worked my way through university and built a career in the energy industry. My style is to listen and collaborate to solve problems. My success at reinvigorating companies makes me a sought-after specialist in turning around organizations.

Portland is heading in the wrong direction and needs a turn-around specialist for:

- Homelessness – Our city isn't coordinating the hundreds of nonprofits working to address homelessness in Portland. This is failed leadership of our city council.
- Affordable Housing – Our city's new fees and policies are dramatically increasing building costs and rental rates.
- Safe Streets – Traffic fatalities are increasing. There are solutions that can save lives.
- Environment – Portland's Zenith Oil Terminal is an impending environmental catastrophe.
- Neighborhood Associations – We need commissioners that will listen and collaborate with our neighborhood associations.
- Fiscal Responsibility – City projects are all too often over budget. Poorly planned multi-million-dollar bonds are causing property taxes to soar.
- City Government – I support modernizing our city charter and also pledge to hold regular town hall meetings across our entire city to ensure your voice is heard.

SUPPORTERS – My supporters are retirees, students, blue collar workers and professionals that live all across our city, including:

- Dmitriy Sashchenko – Small Business Owner
- Dr. Don Baham – Television Producer
- Valentina Cates – Nurse
