Jessica is a believer of quality public education and is devoted to serving East Multnomah County.

"Jessica Arzate is the leader we need now on the MESD Board, in Position 4, to best serve all students in achieving their full potential. Join me in voting for Jessica Arzate- a champion for educational equity and inclusion."-Stephen Marc Beaudoin; Board Chair, Multnomah ESD

MESD serves students who would not otherwise be guaranteed the level of support they need to succeed. As an Early Learning Manager for Multnomah County, I recognize that at some point in a child's life, their circumstances affect their opportunities to succeed. My experience serving and building relationships with culturally specific communities is the kind of leadership that will catalyze the MESD's long term vision and plan. My pride and fight is to build pathways for children and their families in East Multnomah County.

"I am endorsing Jessica Arzate because of her dedication to equity for the many diverse communities that make up our region. I know the hard work and dedication she will bring to MESD"- State Representative Diego Hernandez

As your MESD Board representative, I am committed to:

Building stronger ties between MESD staff and board, families, and education partners by focusing on collaboration and equity to build a longer term vision and plan.

Strengthening what's currently working at MESD and continue to support students with different levels of ability.

Providing multiple pathways to re-engage students through career and college readiness and culturally relevant education.

Proud to be endorsed by:
Multnomah ESD Education Association
AFSCME Local 1995
Stand for Children, Inc
Gloria Ngezaho, Current Centennial School Board Member
