Joseph Puckett 'optional' information for voter pamphlet:

As a lifelong citizen, I have worked everyday to improve my city and state. I will work tirelessly to foster the growth of Portland and its citizens. It is time to stop business as usual in this city, the current model of government has left large swaths of people disenfranchised and exasperated with our current city leaders. It is time the city start listening to its people, we need leaders who will take us boldly into the 21st century. This city needs new leadership that represents the people and their issues, not ones who represent businesses, and corporations. It is time to run our city like a city again, and not a business. It is time to have leaders who are not business owners, lawyers, or career politicians, but ones that represent the larger diversity of our population like teachers, manufacturers, unions workers, scientists, nurses, and the service industry.
