A Fresh Start for a Stronger Future

Open Our Doors to Business

Troutdale has so much to offer! We have the resources at our fingertips to make our great city competitive in economic development, but we need to expand opportunities for businesses to grow. When businesses grow, we create more local jobs and increase revenue.

With a stronger business community, we can move towards making Troutdale a thriving environment for us to live, work and raise our families.

Build Partnerships

To move Troutdale forward we need to work together. By developing stronger partnerships between our local east county governments, businesses, and citizens, we can create a vision for Troutdale's future together.

Every day as a professional project manager, I build partnerships, set goals, achieve outcomes, lead diverse groups, manage risks, and get things done. I will bring those skills to City Council.

Develop Financial Stability

Troutdale is doing better— but we're not there yet. As a member of budget committees, and former City of Troutdale employee, I've seen how important it is that we have the resources we need to fund vital City services like public safety, critical infrastructure, safe roads, parks and schools.

We need to ensure financial stability if we want to see positive growth and that starts with managing revenue and supporting our local businesses.
