As a mental health professional, nonprofit worker, leader in gun violence prevention, and lifelong Oregonian, I vow to serve as a passionate advocate for Parkrose schools. I believe access to quality education, adequate nutrition, and essential supportive services are necessary to promote and achieve social and academic success for all children in the Parkrose School District. I will voice opposition to voucher programs, which divert essential funding to private and parochial schools. Parkrose Public Schools need more funding, not less.

As Director for Position 4, I pledge to:

Proudly stand for all students, regardless of immigration status.

Advocate for programs benefiting our community's youth, including Outdoor School and music/arts programs.

Represent teachers, students, and parents in decision-making processes and respect everyone involved.

Keep funding where it belongs – Parkrose Public Schools.

Recognize the dedication of our educators and support programs for continued professional development.

Offer activities promoting parental involvement and reach out for their active participation.

Strengthen green policies and promote sustainability.

Embrace diversity in our community and advocate for LGBTQ youth as well as other cultural, and racial minorities.

As future leaders of our communities, our children deserve quality education to promote their continued success. I would appreciate your vote to continue these efforts.

Endorsements:

Erick Flores, Educator, Parkrose School Board Director Position 5.

David Friedman, MSW, Parkrose Resident.
