Katey (Rickert) Kinnear

Occupation: Professional Photographer

Occupational Background: Owner and Photographer of my photography business.

Educational Background: Art Institute of Pittsburgh Online Division, BS in Photography. Mt. Hood Community College, General Studies. Corbett High School graduate in 1998

Prior Governmental Experience: None

I'm a born and raised Corbett resident and a graduate of CHS, Class of 1998. My kids are 6th generation Rickert's and 5th generation Angelo's. I'm a mother of 3 boys and my two eldest attend Corbett Grade School and my youngest will attend Preschool in the Fall. My volunteer work with the school district has been extensive. I've served as Vice President and President of the Corbett PTA, volunteer in both of my sons classrooms and chaperone their class field trips. I've been Team Parent for many sports and am on the board of Corbett Youth Football. In addition, I have volunteered many hours assisting the Grade School Staff in the office. Throughout this time, I have become familiar with how things work, how resources are used and dollars are being spent and where things could be improved.

I will work to build a stronger positive voice in the community, and a partnership of positive reinforcement. I want the community to know all the valuable things the school district teachers, staff and volunteers do for our kids, and many families in Corbett. I have built many good relationships in Corbett and in the school district, and as a board member will build a more constructive partnership between the community and consider decisions that affect us all. I will bring creativity when addressing the needs of change, while still honoring the traditions of the generations of families that live and have attended Corbett School District.

“Because of her extensive volunteer experience in the district; her dedication to seeking firsthand information; and her practical ideas regarding how to communicate with the community, the teachers of Corbett School District (the CEA) unanimously endorse Katey Kinnear for School Board.” Megan Shaw (CEA President)
