Candidate Statement for County Voters Pamphlet

The 2017 gorge fires caused me to have great concern regarding our water resources and drinking water safety. When a board position opened on the Rockwood Water PUD, I saw it as a good opportunity to volunteer my time and voice. Water quality and water safety impact everyone in our community.

Since my initial appointment to the board, I have participated in local, regional, and national conferences regarding water education. I have been able to ask questions and lend my voice to the decision-making process including budget, maintenance, and district improvements. My goal is to represent my neighbors and patrons of Rockwood PUD.

My husband and I have lived in the Rockwood area for the past 42 years. Learning to balance career, marriage and family requires that I not become rigid in my thinking. After a career of 31 years in the banking industry, I became a Licensed Professional Counselor in OR/WA in 2008. I consider myself a lifelong learner and an active listener. It would be an honor to represent my neighbors as the Subdistrict #3 Board position of the Rockwood Water PUD.
