Mayor Kent Stuebaker – Balance: Leadership: Vision

Personal: Married to Kim forty seven years, two daughters

Balance

"By working from the middle and uniting around your priorities, we restored financial stability and our sense of community."
Kent Stuebaker

- Spent first on roads, pathways, police, fire, parks and other infrastructure
- Stabilized a very shaky budget
- Reduced staff, saving $2million

Leadership

"Without increasing taxes and with focus and discipline we're attracting new tax paying families to support our schools."
Kent Stuebaker

- Expanding funding for parks, the arts, the library and new miles of bike paths and walkways
- Making Lake Oswego more attractive for businesses to stay or relocate here.
- Allowing citizens full enjoyment of their property without over-reaching regulations

Vision

"Livability and fiscal sanity will go hand in hand." Kent Stuebaker

- Continue to oppose Metro's plan to turn LO into an urbanized mess
- We will have a future where neighborhoods are protected against higher density developments
- Enriching lives through parks, recreation, the arts and sustainability measures will remain a priority

"I ask for your vote so that together we can stay focused and continue to move into a dynamic future." Kent Stuebaker.

"Mayor Stuebaker is supported by Oswegans, not by outside organizations who support one of his opponents and who want our great little city to become more like Portland. Visit web site below to see a partial list" Jonathan Harnish, local small business owner, former school board member.
